

Dear R.U.S.H. for Literacy Supporters,

We want to begin by expressing our most sincere gratitude for eight years of unwavering support for Tuck's R.U.S.H. for Literacy. It has been our distinct pleasure to serve youth in an area that we feel is the great equalizer—education. Without you, we would not have been able to nurture this program and touch the lives of those who need it most. Through your support, we have been able to give over 94,000 books to 17,400 students across the country in Alabama, New York, New Jersey and California. Each year since 2008, every student at the schools we support has received six brand-new, age appropriate books to help keep them stimulated and actively reading in the summer.

While we have completed our programming goals for the Tuck's R.U.S.H. for Literacy Program, our philanthropy does not end here. Our commitment to literacy and lifetime learning will continue as we embark on our new journey away from professional football. We have started a donor-advised fund with the National Philanthropic Trust and will continue to make personal donations and distribute grants for years to come. We will distribute our funds based on R.U.S.H. for Literacy's mission, to organizations making a similar impact.

Again, we are deeply grateful for your love and support and are thankful for the essential role our communities have played in the successes of Tuck's R.U.S.H. for Literacy. It is our hope that each of us will continue to carry the torch of this critical work and never lose sight of what is most important—the futures of the youth we serve.

Sincerely,

Lauran & Justin Tuck
